

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Humanities
Council

Congratulations to the
CLASS OF 2020

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Humanistic
Studies

The Class of 2020
Humanistic Studies
Certificate Holders

Besma Arnaout, French and Italian

The Aporia of Asylum: A Legal and Philosophical Study of the Italian and French Refugee Protection Regulations in the 'European Migrant Crisis'

Advisor: Simone Marchesi

Harrison Ceruto, Philosophy

Hermeneutical Injustice and The American Dream: How a nation's seemingly positive ethos can systematically cause harm and injustice amongst underprivileged citizens

Advisor: Grace Helton

Janice Cheon, German

'Against the Malaise of Time:' Embodied Fragmentation and the Temporalities of the Dada Creaturely, 1919-1937

Advisors: Devin Fore and Michael Jennings

Emma Coley, Religion

Open Your Hearts and Your Buildings: Occupation, Urban Theology, and Faithful Responses to Portland's Village Movement

Advisors: Eric Gregory and Judith Hamera

Yousef Elzalabany, Near Eastern Studies

Artistic Ideas: Assessing 1960's Arab Intellectual History Through Art

Advisor: Jonathan Gribetz

Jacob Goldberg, East Asian Studies

Knowing Subjects and Known Objects: The Disappearance of the Individual in Contemporary Chinese Science Fiction

Advisor: Paize Keulemans

Matthew Igoe, Religion

St. Thérèse and Her Readers: A Study in the Catholic Theology of the Twentieth Century

Advisor: Denys Turner

Alexander Laurenzi, History

Freedom to Freedom Now!: The Expansion of Jazz's Political Tradition During the Civil Rights Movement

Advisor: Joshua Guild

Jaylin Lugardo, Classics

"And Here I Stand, A God Incognito": Optics, Religion, and Space in Philip II's Politics

Advisor: Michael Flower

Alexia Martinez, Philosophy

Wearing Many Hats Well: Ethical Guidance on Occupying Professional Roles

Advisor: Michael Smith

Mara Muslea, Slavic Languages & Literatures

Artistic representation of political legacy at Novodevichy cemetery: the headstones of Khrushchev, Kaganovich, Gromyko and Yeltsin as marginalized narratives

Advisor: Ellen Chances

Rebecca Ngu, English

Walking as Form: Understanding Narrative, Movement, and Subjectivity in Woolf, Smith, and Sebald

Advisor: Sarah Chihaya

Tali Pelts, Religion

Ornament of All Sepphoris? Images and Meaning-Making at the House of Dionysus

Advisor: Martha Himmelfarb

Katherine Powell, African American Studies

Throwing the Voice, Constructing the Self: Black Feminisms and Literature in Martinique and Senegal, 1930s-1970s

Advisor: Wendy Belcher

Sylvie Thode, English

Up in Arms: Poetries of Resistance from the Northern Irish Troubles and the American AIDS Crisis

Advisor: Esther Schor

Kirsten Traudt, Classics

Slavery, Childrearing, and Education in the Roman Empire

Advisor: Dan-el Padilla Peralta

Jianing Zhao, Slavic Languages & Literatures

Polarities, Peripheries, Practicalities: The Turgenev Library in Interwar Paris

Advisor: Katherine Reischl

ADMINISTRATION

Eric S. Gregory
Chair, Humanities Council
Director, Program in Humanistic Studies

Kathleen Crown
Executive Director, Humanities Council

Karyn Zucker Greco
Department Manager, Humanities
Council

Stephanie Lewandowski
Program Manager, Humanistic Studies